Reports

Manager Jim Sanca reported on the following:

- The Rink presented Wizard of Oz on Ice March 20 and 21. The show was considered a success. Attendance was 400 for each performance. The Rink looks forward to presenting the show again next year.
- The month of March closes out with Rose City Warriors annual hockey tournament March 27-29
- Great Skate to Ice Out Cancer will hold their fundraiser/awareness event during May
- Bernie Cassell Hockey Skills program will begin in April
- Southeastern Connecticut Youth Hockey held 3 CHC tournaments during the month of March
- Southeastern Connecticut Youth Hockey will hold tryouts for the 2009-2010 season in early April at The Rink
- Southeastern Connecticut Youth Hockey is also introducing a girls hockey program next season. Tryouts will also be held in April
- Bernie Cassell has been asked to work with the youth program, with both the skaters and the coaches
- Learn to Skate spring 2009 session has 150 participants

- NFA hockey looks like they will have around 17 skaters for the 2009-2010 season. Jim Sanca will reach out to Gary Mackowicki to work on meeting budget.
- Jim Sanca presented The Authority with P&L Previous Year Comparison report – this is the best financial report The Authority has seen in many years. Utility and insurance costs are down while there has been a influx of income from special events such as the skating shows
